Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 28.—A new scale of prices for the lower grades of wheat for the 1918 crop was announced today by Julius H. Barnes, head of the United States grain corporation, and were posted today on the trading floor of the local chamber of commerce to become effective September 2.

"I question the authority of our committee to represent the majority of your employees. The only way by which we can prove our authority is to put the strike vote into effect and we sincerely hope you will not force us to meet the point."

"We asked for a conference for the purpose of arranging a meeting where the questions of wages, hours, conditions of employment and collective bargaining might be discussed. Your answer is a flat refusal for such conferences."

You also make reference to the authority of your corporation to negotiate or prevent your employees from joining labor organizations. It is a matter of common knowledge that the tactics employed by your corporation and subsidiaries have for years most effectively prevented any attempt at organization by your employees."

Tired Out, Says Man Who Gained
Nation Wide Fame for Strong
Stand in Great February Labor
Struggle.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Seattle, Wash., Aug. 28.—Ole Hanson, Seattle's mayor, who gained nation wide fame as a result of his stand against strikes during the general strike here last February, presented his resignation to the city council at 1:30 o'clock today. It was accepted immediately.

"I am tired out and am going fishing," he said in a statement accompanying the resignation.

Mr. Fitzgerald, a councilman, has been selected to succeed him to become the next municipal executive.

The Seattle central labor council announced it intended to ask the city council to name W. D. Lane, president of the council, as Mayor Hanson's successor. Lane is a union labor member of the council.

Mayor Hanson asserted he did not favor the appointment of Lane. He said he was unable to say definitely if he would accept the position, but if he did, he would become acting mayor.

If I stepped out and let Lane in, I would not be living up to my pledges," Mayor Hanson said. "Lane showed his hand recently when he attended a banquet given by Hubert Wells just before he left for the purpose of serving a term for attempting to block the government's war program."
